Reference regulation

Article 127-ter - Consolidated Finance Law
(Right to submit questions prior to the shareholders' meeting)

1. All those with voting rights may submit questions on the items on the agenda even prior to the shareholders' meeting. Questions received before the meeting will be answered at the latest during the said meeting. The company may provide a single reply to questions with the same content.

1-bis. The notice calling the meeting specifies the terms within which questions raised prior to the shareholders' meeting must reach the company. The terms must be no less than three days prior to the date of the first or only calling of the shareholders' meeting or five days if the notice of calling establishes that the company should provide a reply to the questions received before the actual meeting. In this case, replies are provided at least two days prior to the shareholders' meeting also by publication in a specific section of the company website.

2. No reply is necessary, even in the shareholders' meeting, to questions raised prior to it, where the information required is already available in "FAQ" format in the section of the company's website specified in subsection 1-bis or when the answer has been published in accordance with said subsection.

3. The reply attached to the minutes is considered as given during the meeting when is made available at the beginning of the meeting, by each of those entitled to vote.
