

Case M.9674 – Procedure following Paragraph 10 of the Commitments

Case A – Available Sites on which tenants are no longer present in the absence of requests by Third parties within [...] months from publication – Removal from TR

In order to ensure appropriate transparency to MT:

- INWIT sends on a quarterly basis, with 30 days advance, the list of Available Sites that, falling within case A, might be removed from the TR.
- After 30 days, INWIT shall provide appropriate transparency to Third Parties (see below)

To ensure proper transparency to Third Parties:

- INWIT sends on a quarterly basis, with 30 days advance, the list of Available Sites that intends to remove from the TR via ordinary technical channels.
- In case no requests from Third Parties on such Available Sites are received, after 30 days, INWIT shall remove the Available Sites from the TR.

Case B – Available Sites in absence of requests by Third Parties [...] months from publication – Offering the Free Space to prospective customers other than Third Parties

In order to ensure appropriate transparency to MT:

- INWIT sends on a quarterly basis, with 30 days advance, the list of Available Sites that, falling within case B, might be made available to prospective customers other than Third Parties.

In order to ensure proper transparency to Third Parties:

- On a quarterly basis, after 30 days from the date on which INWIT has informed the MT, INWIT shall provide appropriate transparency to Third Parties informing them – via ordinary technical channels – that INWIT shall offer such Available Sites to prospective customers other than Third Parties.

Case C – Available Sites in absence of requests by Third Parties [...] months from the conclusion of [...] the procedure for requesting access to Available Sites – Offering the Free Space to prospective customers other than Third Parties.

In order to ensure appropriate transparency to MT:

- INWIT sends on a quarterly basis, with 30 days advance, the list of Available Sites that, falling within case C, might be made available to prospective customers other than Third Parties.

In order to ensure proper transparency to Third Parties:

- On a quarterly basis, after 30 days from the date on which INWIT has informed the MT, INWIT shall provide appropriate transparency to Third Parties informing them – via ordinary technical channels – that INWIT shall offer such Available Sites to prospective customers other than Third Parties.
